1.2 xosialX Policies and Compensation Plan Incorporated into the Associate Agreement

- A. Throughout these Policies, when the term "Agreement" is used, it collectively refers to the xosialX Agreement, these Policies and Procedures, and the Company Compensation Plan.
- B. It is the responsibility of the Sponsoring Associate to provide the most current version of these Policies and Procedures (available on the xosialX website through your back office library) and the Company Compensation Plan to each applicant prior to his, her and/or its execution of an Associate Agreement.

1.3 Purpose of Policies

xosialX is a direct sales company that markets products through a network of business owners. To clearly define the relationship that exists between the Company and its Associates, and to explicitly set a standard for acceptable business conduct, xosialX has established these Policies and Procedures.

B. xosialX Associates are required to comply with:

- (i) all of the terms and conditions set forth in the Associate Agreement, which the Company may amend from time to time in its sole discretion;
- (ii) all federal, state, and local laws governing his, her and/or its xosialX business; and (iii) these Policies and Procedures.

C. xosialX Associates must review the information in these Policies and Procedures carefully. Should an Associate have any questions regarding a policy or rule, the Associate is encouraged to seek an answer from their Sponsor or any other upline Associate. If further clarification is needed, the Associate may contact the Support Center at 707-449-4567 or support@myctfo.com

A. To become an Associate, an applicant must comply with the following requirements:

- I. Be of the age of majority (not a minor) in his or her state of residence;
- II. Reside or have a valid address in the United States, U.S. territory, Canada, UK, Ireland or Sweden;
- III. Have a valid taxpayer identification number (i.e. Social Security Number, Federal Tax ID Number, ITIN, etc.)

2.2 New Associate Registration

A. A potential new Associate may self-enroll on the Sponsor's website. In such event, instead of a physically signed Associate Agreement, xosialX will accept the web-enrollment and Associate Agreement by way of one's submission of his, her or its "electronic signature." The electronic signature signifies that the new Associate has accepted the terms and conditions of the Associate Agreement. Please note that such electronic signature constitutes a legally binding agreement between you and the Company.

B. xosialX reserves the right to require signed paperwork for any account, regardless of origin.

C. If requested, the signed Associate Agreement must be received by the Company within ten (10) days of enrollment.

D. Signed documents, including, but not limited to, personal Associate agreements, are legally binding contracts which must not be altered, tampered with or changed in any manner after they have been signed. False or misleading information, forged signatures or alterations to any document, including business registration forms, made after a document has been signed may lead to sanctions, up to and including involuntary termination of the Associate's position.

2.3 Rights Granted

A. xosialX hereby grants to the Associate a non-exclusive right, based upon the terms and conditions contained in the Associate Agreement and these Policies and Procedures, to:

- I. Purchase xosialX products and services;
- II. Promote and sell xosialX products and services; and
- III. Sponsor new Associates and Customers in the United States and in countries where xosialX may become established after the effective date of these Policies and Procedures.

2.4 Identification Numbers

A. Each Associate is required to provide his or her Social Security Number, or Federal Tax Identification Number, if located in the United States or any of its territories, to xosialX on the Associate Agreement. xosialX reserves the right to withhold commission payments from any Associate who fails to provide such information or who provides false information.

2.5 Expiration of the Associate Agreement

- A. Any Associate who is terminated by xosialX is not eligible to re-apply for an Associate position at xosialX any time, without expressed written consent of the Company.
- B. Any Associate who cancels their account, of their own choosing, will be eligible to re-apply for a xosialX Associate position six (6) months from the date of the cancellation of the Associate Agreement.
- C. If an Associate does not produce at least 45 PSV during the previous 60 days or does not have at least 10 active Directs at the same time during the previous 60 days, their status will change from Associate to Customer and he/she will no longer earn on the sales of products in their organization.

2.6 Business Entities

- A. A corporation, partnership, LLC, or trust (collectively referred to as a "Business Entity") may apply to be a xosialX Associate. This Associate business and position will remain temporary until the proper documents are submitted. The Business Entity must submit one of the following documents: Certificate of Incorporation, Articles of Organization, Partnership Agreement or appropriate Trust documents. Company must receive these documents within ten (10) days from the date the Associate Agreement was signed.
- B. A xosialX Associate may change their status under the same Sponsor from an individual to a partnership, LLC, corporation, trust or from one type of business entity to another.

2.7 Independent Business Relationship; Indemnification for Actions

- A. The xosialX Associate is an independent contractor, and not a purchaser of a franchise or business opportunity. Therefore, each Associate's success depends on his, her or its independent efforts.
- B. The Agreement between xosialX and its Associates does not create an employer/employee relationship, agency, partnership, or joint venture between you and the Company.
- C. A xosialX Independent Associate shall not be treated as an employee of xosialX for any purposes, including, without limitation, for federal, state or Provincial tax purposes. All Associates are responsible for paying local, state, federal and Provincial taxes due from all compensation earned as an Associate of xosialX. Any other compensation received by Associates from the Company will be governed by applicable U.S. or Canadian tax laws (or the tax laws of any other applicable jurisdiction). The Associate has no express or implied authority to bind xosialX to any obligation or to make any commitments by or on behalf of the Company. Each Associate, whether acting as management of a Business Entity or represented as an individual, shall establish his, her or its own goals, hours, and methods of operation and sale, so long as he, she or it complies with the terms of the Associate Agreement, these Policies and Procedures and applicable state, federal or Provincial laws.

D. The xosialX Independent Associate is fully responsible for all of his, her or its verbal and written communications made regarding xosialX products and the Compensation Plan that are not expressly contained within official Corporate materials. Associates shall indemnify and hold harmless xosialX, its directors, officers, employees, product suppliers and agents from any and against all liability including judgments, civil penalties, refunds, attorney fees and court costs incurred by the Company as a result of the Associate's unauthorized representations or actions. This Provision shall survive the termination of the xosialX Associate Agreement.

2.8 Insurance

Business Pursuits Coverage. xosialX encourages Associates to arrange insurance coverage for their business. A homeowner's insurance policy does not cover business related injuries, or the theft of, or damage to, inventory or business equipment. xosialX Associates need to contact their insurance agent to make certain their business property is protected. In most instances, this may be accomplished with a "Business Pursuit" endorsement to an existing homeowner's policy.

2.9 Errors or Questions

A. If an Associate has questions about, or believes any errors have been made regarding commissions, bonuses, business reports, orders, or charges, the Associate must notify the Company in writing within thirty (30) days of the date of the error or incident in question. Any such errors, omissions or problems not reported within thirty days shall be deemed waived by the Associate.

3.1 Correct Addresses

A. It is the responsibility of the Associate or Customer to make sure xosialX has the correct shipping address before any orders are shipped.

B. An Associate or Customer will need to allow up to thirty (30) days for processing after any notice of address change has been sent and subsequently received by the Company.

3.2 Training and Leadership

Any Associate who Sponsors another Associate into xosialX must perform an authentic assistance and training function to ensure his or her downline is properly operating his, her or its xosialX business. Sponsoring Associates should have ongoing contact and communication with the Associates in their downline organizations. Examples of communication may include, but are not limited to, newsletters, written correspondence, telephone, contact, team calls, voice-mail, email, personal meetings, accompaniment of downline Associates to Company meetings, training sessions and any other related functions.

B. A Sponsoring Associate should monitor the Associates in his or her downline organizations to ensure that downline Associates do not make improper product or business claims, or engage in any illegal or inappropriate conduct. Upon request, such Associate should be able to provide documented evidence to xosialX of his, her or its ongoing fulfillment of the responsibilities of a Sponsor.

C. Upline Associates are encouraged to motivate and train new Associates about xosialX's products, effective sales techniques, the Company Compensation Plan and compliance with the Company Policies and Procedures.

D. Marketing product is a required activity in xosialX and must be emphasized in all recruiting presentations.

E. We emphasize and encourage all Associates to sell xosialX's products to Customers.

F. Use of Sales Aids. To promote both the products and the opportunity xosialX offers, Associates must use the sales aids and support materials produced by the Company. If Associates develop their own sales aids and promotional materials, which includes Internet advertising, notwithstanding the Associates' good intentions, they may unintentionally violate any number of statutes or regulations affecting the xosialX business. These violations, although they may be relatively few in number, could jeopardize the xosialX opportunity for all Associates. Accordingly, Associates must submit all written sales aids, promotional materials, advertisements, websites and other literature to the Company for review.

3.3 Constructive Criticism; Ethics

A. xosialX desires to provide its independent Associates with the best products and Compensation Plan in the industry. Accordingly, the Company values constructive criticism and encourages the submission of written comments addressed to the Company Compliance Department.

B. Negative and disparaging comments by Associates about the Company, its products or Compensation Plan serve no purpose other than to dampen the enthusiasm of other xosialX Associates. Associates must not belittle the Company, other xosialX Associates, Company products, the Compensation Plan, or Company directors, officers, or employees, product suppliers or agents. Such conduct represents a material breach of these Policies and Procedures and may be subject to sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Company.

C. xosialX endorses the following code of ethics:

I. As a representative of our company, all xosialX Independent Associates must show fairness, tolerance, and respect to all people, regardless of race, gender, social class or religion, thereby fostering a "positive atmosphere", good morale and community spirit.

II. An Associate shall strive to resolve business issues, including situations with up-line and downline Associates, by emphasizing tact, sensitivity, good will and taking care not to create additional problems.

III. xosialX Associates must be honest, responsible, professional and conduct themselves with integrity.

IV. xosialX Associates shall not make disparaging statements about the Company, other Associates, Company employees, product suppliers or agents, products, sales and marketing campaigns, or the Compensation Plan, or make statements that unreasonably offend, mislead or coerce others.

V. xosialX Associates are to treat Company employees with respect. Any person(s) using abusive or threatening language toward a Company employee may be subject to disciplinary action up to termination.

- I. The nature of the violation;
- II. Specific facts to support the allegations;
- III. Dates;
- IV. Number of occurrences;

E. All active Associates in good standing have the right to Sponsor and enroll others into xosialX. While engaged in sponsoring activities, it is not uncommon to encounter situations when more than one Associate will approach the same prospect. It is the accepted courtesy that the new prospect will be sponsored by the first Associate who presented a comprehensive introduction to xosialX products or business opportunity.

F. A Protected Prospect is a guest of any xosialX Associate or Customer who attended a Company event or conference call. For forty (40) days following the event, a Protected Prospect cannot be solicited or sponsored by any other Associate who attended the same event. A Company event can be defined as the following:

Actual or attempted cross sponsoring is not allowed. If cross sponsoring is verified by the Company, sanctions up to and including termination of an Associate's business and position may be imposed.

B. The use of a Spouse's or relative's name, trade names, assumed names, DBA names, corporation, partnership, trust, federal ID numbers, or fictitious ID numbers to evade or circumvent this Policy is not permitted.

C. This Policy does not prohibit the transfer of a xosialX business in accordance with the Sale or Transfer Policy set forth in these Policies.

3.8 Adherence to Laws and Ordinances

- A. Many cities and counties have laws regulating certain home-based businesses. In most cases, these ordinances do not apply to Associates because of the nature of the business. However, Associates must check their local laws and obey the laws that do apply to them.
- B. A xosialX Associate shall comply with all Provincial, federal, state, and local laws and regulations in their conduct of his, her or its xosialX business.

3.9 Compliance with Applicable Income Tax Laws

- A. xosialX will automatically provide a complete 1099 Miscellaneous Income Tax form (nonemployee compensation) to each US Associate whose earnings for the year is at least $600 or who has purchased more than $5,000 of Company products for resale, or who received trips, prizes or awards valued at $600 or more. However, during the Term of this Agreement and for six (6) months thereafter, a xosialX Associate may not recruit any xosialX Associate or Customer for any other direct sales or network marketing business, unless that Associate or Customer was personally sponsored by such Associate.

B. The term “recruit” means actual or attempted solicitation, enrollment, encouragement, or effort to influence in any other way (either directly or through a third party), another Associate or Customer to enroll or participate in any direct sales or network marketing opportunity. This conduct represents recruiting even if the Associate’s actions are in response to an inquiry made by another Associate or Customer.

C. By completing and signing the xosialX Associate Agreement, the Associate acknowledges that Business Reports, lists of Customer and Associate names and contact information and any other information, which contain financial, scientific or other information both written or otherwise circulated by xosialX pertaining to the business (collectively, "Reports") are confidential and proprietary information and trade secrets belonging to to the Company.

8.2 Obligation of Confidentiality

A. During the Term of the Associate Agreement and for a period of five (5) years after the termination or expiration of the Associate Agreement, the Associate shall not:

- II. Use or disclose to any person or entity any confidential information contained in the Reports, including the replication of the genealogy in another network marketing company.

8.3 Breach and Remedies

The Associate acknowledges that such proprietary information is of such character as to render it unique and that disclosure or use thereof in violation of this provision will result in irreparable damage to the Company and to independent xosialX businesses. The Company and its Associates will be entitled to injunctive relief or to recover damages against any Associate who violates this provision in any action to enforce its rights under this section. The prevailing party shall be entitled to an award of attorney's fees, court costs and expenses.

8.4 Return of Materials

9.1 Labeling, Packaging, and Displaying Products

A. xosialX Associate may not re-label, re-package, refill, or alter labels of any xosialX product, information, materials or program(s) in any way. xosialX products must only be sold in their original containers from the Company. Such re-labeling or re-packaging violates federal and state laws, which may result in criminal or civil penalties or liability.

B. An Associate shall not cause any xosialX products or any Company trade name to be sold or displayed in retail establishments.

C. The Company will permit Associates to solicit and make Commercial Sales only upon prior written approval from Corporate. For the purpose of these Policies and Procedures, the term "Commercial Sale" means the sale of:

D. An Associate may sell xosialX products and display the xosialX trade name at any appropriate display booth (such as trade shows).

E. xosialX reserves the right to refuse authorization to participate at any function that it does not deem a suitable forum for the promotion of its products, or the xosialX opportunity.

9.2 Use of Company Names and Protected Materials

A. A xosialX Associate must safeguard and promote the good reputation of the Company and the products it markets. The marketing and promotion of xosialX, the xosialX opportunity, the Compensation Plan, and xosialX products will be consistent with the public interest, and must avoid all discourteous, deceptive, misleading, unethical or immoral conduct and practices.

B. All promotional materials supplied or created by the Company must be used in their original form and cannot be changed, amended or altered except with prior written approval from the xosialX Compliance Department.

C. The name of xosialX, each of its product names and other names that have been adopted by the Company in connection with its business are proprietary trade names, trademarks and service marks of the Company. As such, these marks are of great value to xosialX and are supplied to Associates for their use only in an expressly authorized manner.

D. A xosialX Associate's use of the name "xosialX" is restricted to protect the Company's proprietary rights, ensuring that Company protected names will not be lost or compromised by unauthorized use. Use of the xosialX name on any item not produced by the Company is prohibited except as follows:

I. [Associate's name] Independent xosialX Associate

II. [Associate's name] Independent Associate of xosialX.

E. Further procedures relating to the use of the xosialX name are as follows:

I. All stationary (i.e., letterhead, envelopes, and business cards) bearing the xosialX name or logo intended for use by the Associate must be approved in writing by the Company Compliance Department.

II. Associates may list "Independent xosialX Associate" or "Associate of xosialX" in the white pages of the telephone directory under his, her or its own name.

III. Associates may not use the name xosialX or xosialX in answering his, her or its telephone, creating a voice message or using an answering service, such as to give the impression to the caller that they have reached the corporate office. They may state, "Independent xosialX Associate."

F. Certain photos and graphic images used by xosialX in its advertising, packaging, and websites are the result of paid contracts with outside vendors that do not extend to Associates. If an Associate wants to use these photos or graphic images, they must negotiate individual contracts with the vendors for a fee.

G. An Associate shall not appear on or make use of television or radio, or make use of any other media to promote or discuss xosialX or its programs, products or services without prior written permission from the Company Compliance Department.

H. An Associate may not produce for sale or distribution any Company event or speech, nor may an Associate reproduce xosialX audio or video clips for sale or for personal use without prior written permission from the Company Compliance Department.

I. xosialX reserves the right to rescind its prior approval of any sales aid or promotional material to comply with changing laws and regulations and may request the removal from the marketplace of such materials without financial obligation to the affected Associate.

J. An Associate shall not promote non-xosialX products in conjunction with Company products on the same websites or same advertisement without prior approval from Corporate.

K. Claims (which include personal testimonials) as to therapeutic, curative or beneficial properties of any products offered by xosialX may not be made except those contained in official Corporate literature. In particular, no Associate may make any claim that xosialX products are useful in the cure, treatment, diagnosis, heal mitigation or prevention of any diseases. Such statements can be perceived as medical or drug claims. Not only do such claims violate xosialX policies, but also they potentially violate federal and state laws and regulations, including the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and Federal Trade Commission Act.

9.3 E-mail Limitations

A. Except as provided in this section, an Associate may not use or transmit email, mass email distribution, or "spamming" that advertises or promotes the operation of his, her or its xosialX business. The exceptions are:

I. E-mailing any person who has given prior permission or invitation;

II. E-mailing any person with whom the Associate has established a prior business or personal relationship.

B. D. All e-mail or computer broadcasted documents subject to this provision shall not include any of the following:

- I. Use of any third-party domain name without permission;
- II. Sexually explicit materials.

9.4 Internet and Third-Party Website Restrictions

1. An Associate may not use or attempt to register any of xosialX's trade names, trademarks, service marks, product names, URLs, advertising phrases, the Company's name or any derivative thereof, for any purpose including, but not limited to, Internet Domain names (URL), third party websites, email addresses, Independent Associate username, web pages, or blogs.
2. An Associate may not sell Company products or offer the xosialX opportunity using "online auctions", such as eBay or online marketplaces, such as Amazon.
3. All Associates may have one (1) approved third-party website. A third-party website is a personal website that is hosted on a non-xosialX server and has no affiliation with Corporate. Third-party websites may be used to promote your business and xosialX products so long as the third-party adheres to Company advertising policies. Moreover, no orders may be placed through third party websites, and no enrollments may occur through a third-party website. If you wish to use any third-party website, you must do the following:
 - a. Clearly and conspicuously identify yourself as an Independent Associate for xosialX. Clearly and conspicuously that the third-party website is not a corporate website (as websites that do not identify the promotor of the site and/or that he/she/it is promoting xosialX products, called "blind" websites - are strictly prohibited);
 - b. Use only the approved images and wording authorized by the Company;

- c. Adhere to the branding, trademark, and image usage policies described in this document;
- d. Adhere to any other provision regarding the use of a third-party website described in this document;
- e. Agree to give the Compliance Department at xosialX access to the third-party website and, if the website password is protected, the Compliance Department must receive passwords or credentials allowing unlimited access;
- f. Agree to modify your website to comply with current or future Company policies;
- g. Directly link third-party website to Associate's company-provided replicated website to process sales and/or enrollments. All marketing materials used on an Associate's third-party website must be provided by xosialX or approved in writing by the Company. To avoid confusion, the following three elements must also be prominently displayed at the top of every page of your third-party website:
 - 1. The xosialX Associate Logo
 - 2. Your Name and Title
 - 3. xosialX Corporate Website Redirect Button

An Associate may not use third-party sites that contain materials copied from corporate sources (such as xosialX brochures, CDs, videos, tapes, events, presentations, and corporate websites). This Policy ensures brand consistency, allows Customers and Associates to stay up-to-date with changing products, services and information, facilitates enrollment under the correct Sponsor, and assists in compliance with government regulations.

B. xosialX products must be exclusively displayed on an Associate's third-party website. The third-party website should not display any other products and services not marketed or sold by the Company.

C. If the independent xosialX business of an Associate who has received authorization to create and post an third-party website is voluntarily or involuntarily canceled for any reason, or if the Company revokes its authorization allowing the Associate to maintain a third-party website, the Associate shall assign the URL to his/her third-party website to the Company Compliance Department within three (3) days from the date of the cancellation and/or re-direct all traffic to the site as directed by the Company. xosialX reserves the right to revoke any Associate's right to use a third-party website at any time if the Company believes that such revocation is in the best interest of xosialX, its Associates and Customers. Decisions and corrective actions in this area are at xosialX's sole and absolute discretion.

D. Social Media sites may not be used to sell or offer to sell any other products of a direct marketing company other than xosialX products. PROFILES AN ASSOCIATE GENERATES IN ANY SOCIAL COMMUNITY WHERE xosialX IS DISCUSSED OR MENTIONED MUST CLEARLY IDENTIFY THE ASSOCIATE AS A xosialX INDEPENDENT ASSOCIATE, and when an Associate participates in those communities, Associates must avoid inappropriate conversations, comments, images, video, audio, applications or any other adult, profane, discriminatory or vulgar content. The determination of what is inappropriate is at the Company's sole discretion, and offending Associates will be subject to disciplinary action. Banner ads and images used on these sites must be current and must come from the Company approved library. If a link is provided, it must link to the posting Associate's Replicated website or an approved third-party website.

E. Anonymous postings or use of an alias on any Social Media site is prohibited, and offending Associates will be subject to disciplinary action.

F. Associates may not use blog spam, spam texting or any other mass-replicated methods to leave blog comments. Comments Associates create or leave must be useful, unique, relevant and specific to the blog's article.

G. Associates must disclose their full name on all Social Media postings, and conspicuously identify themselves as an independent Associate for xosialX. Anonymous postings or use of an alias is prohibited.

H. Postings that are false, misleading, or deceptive are prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, false or deceptive postings relating to the xosialX income opportunity, xosialX products, and/or your biographical information and credentials Associates are personally responsible for their postings and all other online activity that relates to xosialX. Therefore, even if an Associate does not own or operate a blog or Social Media site, if an Associate posts to any such site that relates to the Company or which can be traced to the Company, the Associate is responsible for the posting. Associates are also responsible for postings which occur on any blog or Social Media site that the Associate owns, operates, or controls.

As a xosialX Associate, it is important to not converse with any person who places a negative post against you, other Associates, or the Company. Report negative posts to the Company Compliance Department. Responding to such negative posts often simply fuels a discussion with someone carrying a grudge that does not hold themselves to the same high standards as xosialX, and therefore damages the reputation and goodwill of the Company.

The distinction between a Social Media site and a website may not be clear-cut, because some Social Media sites are particularly robust, xosialX therefore reserves the sole and exclusive right to classify certain Social Media sites as third-party websites and require that Associates using, or who wish to use, such sites adhere to the Company's policies relating to third-party websites.

If your xosialX business is cancelled for any reason, you must discontinue using the Company name, and all of the Company's trademarks, trade names, service marks, and other intellectual property, and all derivatives of such marks and intellectual property, in any postings and all Social Media sites that you utilize. If you post on any Social Media site on which you have previously identified yourself as an independent xosialX Associate, you must conspicuously disclose that you are no longer an Associate with the Company.

Failure to comply with these Policies for conducting business online may result in the Associate losing their right to advertise and market xosialX products and the xosialX opportunity online in addition to any other disciplinary action available under the Policies and Procedures.

9.5 Advertising and Promotional Materials

- A. You may not advertise any xosialX products at a price LESS than the highest company published, established retail price plus shipping, handling and applicable taxes. No special enticement advertising is allowed. This includes, but is not limited to, free shipping, or other such offers that grant advantages beyond those available through the Company.
- B. Advertising and all forms of communications must adhere to principles of honesty and propriety.
- C. All advertising, including, but not limited to, print, Internet, computer bulletin boards, television, radio, etc., are subject to prior written approval by the Company Compliance Department.
- D. All requests for approvals with respect to advertising must be directed in writing to the Company Compliance Department.
- E. xosialX approval is not required to place blind ads that do not mention xosialX, its employees, any of its products, services, designs, symbols, programs, and trademarked, copyrighted, or otherwise protected materials.
- F. xosialX reserves the right to rescind its prior approval of submitted advertising or promotional materials in order to comply with changing laws and regulations, and may require the removal of such advertisements from the marketplace without obligation to the affected Associate.

9.6 Testimonial Permission

- A. By signing the xosialX Associate Agreement, an Associate gives the Company permission to use his or her testimonial or image and likeness in corporate sales materials, including but not limited to print media, electronic media, audio and video. In consideration of being allowed to participate in the xosialX opportunity, an Associate waives any right to be compensated for the use of his or her testimonial or image and likeness even though the Company may be paid for items or sales materials containing such image and likeness. In some cases, an Associate's testimonial may appear in another Associate's advertising materials. If an Associate does not wish to participate in xosialX sales and marketing materials, he or she should provide a written notice to the Company Compliance Department to ensure that his or her testimonial or image and likeness will not be used in any corporate materials, corporate recognition pieces, advertising or recordings of annual events.

9.7 Telemarketing Limitations

- A. An Associate must not engage in telemarketing in relation to the operation of the Associate's xosialX business. The term "telemarketing" means the placing of one or more telephone calls to an individual or entity to induce the purchase of xosialX products, or to recruit them for the xosialX

B. The Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) and the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) each have laws that restrict telemarketing practices. Both Federal agencies, as well as a number of states have “do not call” regulations as part of their telemarketing laws.

C. While an Associate may not consider himself or herself a “telemarketer” in the traditional sense, these regulations broadly define the term “telemarketer” and “telemarketing” so that the unintentional action of calling someone whose telephone number is listed on the Federal “Do Not Call” registry could cause the Associate to violate the law. These regulations must not be taken lightly, as they carry significant penalties (up to $11,000 per violation).

D. “Cold calls” or “state-to-state calls” made to prospective Customers or Associates that promote either xosialX products or the xosialX opportunity is considered telemarketing and is prohibited.

E. Exceptions to Telemarketing Regulations An Associate may place telephone calls to prospective Customers or Associates under the following limited situations:

- I. If the Associate has an established business relationship with the prospect;
- II. In response to the prospect’s personal inquiry or application regarding a product offered by the xosialX Associate, within three (3) months immediately before the date of such a call;
- III. If the Associate receives written and signed permission from the prospect authorizing the Associate to call;
- IV. If the call is to family members, personal friends, and acquaintances. However, if an Associate makes a habit of collecting business cards from everyone he/she meets and subsequently calls them, the FTC may consider this a form of telemarketing that is not subject to this exemption;
- V. Associates engaged in calling “acquaintances,” must make such calls on an occasional basis only and not as a routine practice.

F. An Associate shall not use automatic telephone dialing systems in the operation of his or her xosialX business.

G. Failure to abide by Company policies or regulations as set forth by the FTC and FCC regarding telemarketing may lead to sanctions against the Associate’s position, up to and including termination of the position.

H. By signing the Associate Agreement, or by accepting commission checks, other payments or awards from the Company, an Associate gives permission to xosialX and other Associates to contact them as permitted under the Federal Do Not Call regulations.

I. In the event an Associate violates this section, the Company reserves the right to institute legal proceedings to obtain monetary or equitable relief.

10.0 CHANGES TO AN ASSOCIATE BUSINESS

10.1 Modification of the Associate Agreement

An Associate may modify his or her existing Associate Agreement (i.e., change a social security number to a Federal ID number, add a Spouse or partner to the account, or change the form of ownership from an individual to a Business Entity owned by the Associate) by submitting a written request, accompanied by a new Associate Agreement and the Business Registration Form, if applicable, completed with fresh signatures (not a “crossed out” or “white-out” version of the first Agreement), and any appropriate supporting documentation.

10.2 Change Sponsor or Placement for Active Associates

Maintaining the integrity of the organizational structure is mandatory for the success of the Company and our independent Associates. As such, under exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the Company, a request to change placement may only be made within the first three (3) days of initial enrollment as an Associate. Furthermore, such changes may only occur within the same organization.

B. Sponsors may make “Placement changes” from one Associate to another for personally Sponsored (frontline) Associates during the first three days of enrollment.

C. New Associates or their original Sponsor may request a change of Sponsor or Placement within the first three days of enrollment for the purpose of structuring an organization. The new Associate Agreement must be received within the calendar month for commission calculations to be effective with the requested change.

D. To change or correct the Sponsor, an Associate must comply with following procedures:

I. Submit a Sponsor Placement Transfer Form;

II. Submit a xosialX Associate Agreement showing the correct Sponsor and Placement, and any appropriate supporting documentation;

III. The Associate Agreement must be a new, completed document bearing “fresh” signatures, not a “crossed-out” or “white-out” version of the first Agreement.

E. Upon approval, the Associate’s downline, if any, will transfer with the Associate.

F. After the first 30 days from initial enrollment, the Company will honor the Sponsor/Placement as shown:

I. On the most recently signed Associate Agreement on file; or

II. Self-enrolled on the website (i.e., electronically signed web Agreement).

G. xosialX retains the right to approve or deny any requests to change Sponsor or Placement, and to correct any errors related thereto at any time and in whatever manner it deems necessary.

10.4 Change Organizations

If an Associate wishes to transfer organizations, he or she must submit a letter of resignation to the Company Customer Service Department and remain inactive (place no orders nor make any sales) with or in xosialX for six (6) months from the receipt of the letter before being eligible to re-enroll under a different Sponsor/Placement.

B. xosialX retains the right to approve or deny any request to re-enroll after an Associate's resignation.

C. If re-enrollment is approved, the former Associate will be issued a new xosialX ID number and will be required to submit a new Associate Agreement. The Associate will not be entitled to keep any former rank, downline, or rights to commission checks from any prior organization.

D. Transfers may not be done outside of the original organization.

10.5 Unethical Sponsoring

Unethical sponsoring activities include, but are not limited to, enticing, bidding or engaging in unhealthy competition in trying to acquire a prospect or new Associate from another Associate or influencing another Associate to transfer to a different sponsor.

B. Allegations of unethical sponsoring must be reported in writing to the Company Compliance Department to compliance@myctfo.com, within the first 90 days of enrollment. If the reports are substantiated, xosialX may transfer the Associate or the Associate's downline to another sponsor, Placement or organization without approval from the current up-line Sponsor or Placement Associates. The Company remains the final authority in such cases.

C. xosialX prohibits the act of "Stacking." Stacking is the unauthorized manipulation of the Company compensation system and/or the marketing plan in order to trigger commissions or cause a promotion off a downline Associate in an unearned manner. One example of stacking occurs when a Sponsor places participants under an inactive downline without his or her knowledge in order to trigger unearned qualification for commissioning. Stacking is unethical and unacceptable behavior, and as such, it is a punishable offense with measures up to and including the termination of the independent consultant positions of all individuals and/or entities found to be directly involved.

D. Should Associates engage in solicitation and/or enticement of members of another direct sales company to sell or distribute xosialX products to, they bear the risk of being sued by the other direct sales company. If any lawsuit, arbitration, or mediation is brought against an Associate alleging that they engaged in inappropriate recruiting activity of another company's sales force or Customers, xosialX will not pay any of Associate's defense costs or legal fees, nor will the Company indemnify the Associate for any judgment, award, or settlement.

10.6 Sell, Assign or Delegate Ownership

In order to preserve the integrity of the hierarchical structure, it is necessary for xosialX to place restrictions on the transfer, assignment, or sale of a position.

B. A xosialX Associate may not sell or assign his or her rights or delegate his or her position as an Associate without prior written approval by the Company, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld. Any attempted sale, assignment, or delegation without such approval may be voided at the discretion of the Company.

C. Should the sale be approved by xosialX, the Buyer assumes the position of the Seller at the current qualified title, but at the current "paid as" rank, at the time of the sale and acquires the Seller's Downline.

D. To request corporate authorization for a sale or transfer of a xosialX position, the following items must be submitted to the Company Compliance Department:

- I. A Sale/Transfer of position Form properly completed, with the requisite signatures.
- II. A copy of the Sales Agreement signed and dated by both Buyer and Seller.
- III. A xosialX Associate Agreement completed and signed by the Buyer;
- IV. Any additional supporting documentation requested by the Company.

E. Any debt obligations that either Seller or Buyer may have with the Company must be satisfied prior to the approval of the sale or transfer by the Company.

F. An Associate who sells his or her position is not eligible to re-enroll as a xosialX Associate in any organization for six (6) full calendar months following the date of the sale except as otherwise expressly set forth in these Policies and Procedures.

10.7 Separating a xosialX Business

A. Pending a divorce or dissolution of a partnership or other business entity, the parties must adopt one of the following methods of operation:

- I. One of the parties may, with the written consent of the other(s), operate the xosialX business whereby the relinquishing Spouse, shareholders, partners, members or trustees authorize the Company to deal directly and solely with the other Spouse, non-relinquishing shareholder, partner, member or trustee;
- II. The parties may continue to operate the xosialX business jointly on a "business as usual" basis, whereupon all compensation paid by the Company will be paid in the name designated as the Associates or in the name of the entity to be divided, as the parties may independently agree between them. If no name is stipulated, the Company will pay compensation to the name on record and in such event, the Associate named on the account shall indemnify xosialX from any claims from the other business owner(s) or the other Spouse with respect to such payment.

B. xosialX recognizes only one Downline organization and will issue only one commission check per xosialX business per commission cycle. Under no circumstances will the Downline of an organization be divided, nor will the Company split commission and/or bonus checks.

C. If a relinquishing Spouse, partner or owner of the business has completely relinquished ("Relinquishing Party"), in writing, all rights to the original xosialX business, he or she may immediately thereafter re-enroll under the Sponsor and Placement of his or her choice. In such cases, however, the Relinquishing Party shall have no rights to, and shall not solicit, any Associate or active Customer in the former organization, and must develop a new business in the same manner as any other new xosialX Associate. An Associate in the Relinquishing Party's former Downline who wishes to transfer to the Relinquishing Party's new organization or to any other organization, must comply with the requirements in Section 12.5.

10.8 Succession

A. Upon the death or incapacity of an Associate, the Associate's business may be passed on to his or her legal successors in interest (successor). Whenever a xosialX business is transferred by will or other testamentary process, the successor acquires the right to collect all bonuses and commissions of the deceased Associate's sales organization. The successor must:

- I. Complete and sign a new xosialX Associate Agreement;
- II. Comply with the terms and provisions of the Associate Agreement; and
- III. Meet all of the qualifications for the last rank achieved by the former Associate.

B. Bonus and commission checks of a xosialX business transferred based on this section will be paid in a single check to the successor. The successor must provide the Company with an "address of record" to which all bonus and commission Payments will be sent. Payments will be based on the current performance of the position, not the highest rank or volume achieved.

C. If the business is bequeathed to joint devisees (successors), they must form a business entity and acquire a Federal taxpayer identification number. xosialX will issue all bonus and commission payments and one 1099 Miscellaneous Income Tax form to the managing business entity only.

D. Appropriate legal documentation must be submitted to the Company Compliance Department to ensure the transfer is done properly. To affect a testamentary transfer of a xosialX business, the successor must provide the following to Company Compliance Department:

- I. A certified copy of the death certificate; and
- II. A notarized copy of the will or other appropriate legal documentation establishing the successor's right to the xosialX business.

E. To complete a transfer of the xosialX business because of incapacity, the successor must provide the following to the Company Compliance Department:

- I. A notarized copy of an appointment as trustee;
- II. A notarized copy of the trust document or other appropriate legal documentation establishing the trustee's right to administer the xosialX business; and
- III. A completed Associate Agreement executed by the trustee.

F. If the successor is already an existing Associate, Company will allow such Associate to keep his or her own position plus the inherited position active for up to six (6) months. By the end of the six-month period, the Associate must have compressed (if applicable), sold or otherwise transferred either the existing position or the inherited position.

G. If the successor wishes to terminate the xosialX position, he or she must submit a notarized statement stating the desire to terminate the position, along with a certified copy of the death certificate, appointment as trustee, and/or any other appropriate legal documentation.

H. Upon written request, xosialX may grant a one (1) month bereavement waiver and pay out at the last "paid as" rank.

10.9 Resignation/Voluntary Termination

An Associate may immediately terminate his or her position by submitting a written notice or email to the Company Compliance Department. The written notice must include the following:

- I. The Associate's intent to resign;
- II. Date of resignation;
- III. xosialX Identification Number;
- IV. Reason for resigning; and
- V. Signature.

B. An Associate may not use resignation as a way to immediately change Sponsor and Placement. Instead, the Associate who has voluntarily resigned is not eligible to reapply for a position or have any financial interest in an or any xosialX business for six (6) months from the receipt of the written notice of resignation.

10.10 Involuntary Termination

A. xosialX reserves the right to terminate an Associate's position for, but not limited to, the following reasons:

- I. Violation of any terms or conditions of the Associate Agreement;
- II. Violation of any provision in these Policies and Procedures;
- III. Violation of any provision in the Compensation Plan;
- IV. Violation of any applicable law, ordinance, or regulation regarding the xosialX business; or
- V. Engaging in unethical business practices or violating standards of fair dealing.

B. The Company will notify the Associate in writing by mail at his or her last known address or email address of its intent to terminate the Associate's position and the reasons for termination. The Associate will have five (5) calendar days from the date of mailing of such notice to respond in writing to the allegations or claims constituting cause for termination as stated in the notice.

C. If the termination is not rescinded, the termination will be effective as of the date of the original termination notice by xosialX. The former Associate shall thereafter be prohibited from using the names, marks or signs, labels, stationery, advertising, or business material referring to or relating to any xosialX products. Company will notify the active Upline Sponsor within ten (10) days after termination.

D. The xosialX Associate who is involuntarily terminated by the Company may not reapply for a position, either under his or her present name or any other name or entity, without the express written consent of an officer of xosialX, following Company Compliance Department. In any event, such Associate may not re-apply for a position for six (6) months from the date of termination.

10.11 Effect of Cancellation

- A. Following an Associate's cancellation for inactivity or voluntary or involuntary termination (collectively, a "cancellation") such Associate:
 - I. Shall have no right, title, claim or interest to any commission or bonus from the sales generated by the Associate's former organization or any other payments in association with the Associate's former independent position;
 - II. Effectively waives any and all claims to property rights or any interest in or to the Associate's former Downline organization;
 - III. Shall receive commissions and bonuses only for the last full pay period in which he or she was active prior to cancellation, less any amounts withheld during an investigation preceding an involuntary cancellation, and less any other amounts owed to xosialX.

11.0 DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

11.1 Imposition of Disciplinary Action - Purpose

It is the spirit of xosialX that integrity and fairness should pervade among its Associates, thereby providing everyone with an equal opportunity to build a successful business. Therefore, the Company reserves the right to impose disciplinary sanctions at any time, when it has determined that an Associate has violated the Agreement or any of these Policies and Procedures or the Compensation Plan as they may be amended from time to time by the Company.

11.2 Consequences and Remedies of Breach

A. Disciplinary actions may include one or more of the following:

- I. Monitoring an Associate's conduct over a specified period of time to assure compliance;
- II. Issuance of a written warning or requiring the Associate to take immediate corrective action;
- III. Imposition of a fine (which may be imposed immediately or withheld from future commission payments) or the withholding of commission payments ("Commission Hold") until the matter causing the Commission Hold is resolved or until Company receives adequate additional assurances from the Associate to ensure future compliance;
- IV. Suspension from participation in Company or Associate events, rewards, or recognition;

- c. The Compliance Department will thoroughly investigate the complaint, consider all the submitted information it deems relevant, including information from collateral sources. Due to the unique nature of each situation, determinations of the appropriate remedy will be on a case by case basis, and the length of time to reach a resolution will vary.
- d. During the course of the investigation, the Compliance Department will only provide periodic updates simply stating that the investigation is ongoing. No other information will be released during this time. Associate calls, letters, and requests for "progress reports" during the course of the investigation will not be answered or returned.

Any such arbitration shall be held in Reno, Nevada. There shall be one arbitrator, who shall have expertise in business law transactions and who shall be knowledgeable in the direct selling industry, selected from a panel provided by the American Arbitration Association.
